

Making Memories Magical

www.irishguidedtours.ie

Dundalk Walking Tour

Dundalk 90 Walking Tour

Join our Dundalk 90 Walking Tour, experience the development of the town and learn more about the wonderful legends associated with the town and its surrounding hinterlands.

Dún Dealgan, the Gaelic name of the town is from the period of mythology relating to a Fir Bolg chieftain Dealga. The legendary warrior, Cúchulainn of Táin Bó Cuailngne fame (Cattle Raid of Cooley) was born there as is indicated in the motto on the Town Crest, 'Mé do rug Cúchulainn Cróga, (I gave birth to brave Cuchulainn).

Whether you are a local or visiting the 'wee county' from somewhere else in Ireland – and of course for all our visitors from abroad: this tour introduces you to the most remarkable landmarks and their history.

All of us who travel a lot know that 'per pedes' is the best way to see a city or town. Our local tour guides will make this tour both enjoyable and interesting.

We will take you to some of the most relevant places including: St. Leonard's Gardens, The Courthouse, St. Patrick's Cathedral, The County Museum, St. Nicholas Church of Ireland (The Green Church), Cúchulainn Castle, Seatown Windmill, etc.

90 Focal Points to see in Dundalk

Outstanding architectural features, Irish heritage and some insider storytelling is what you can expect on this tour which.

Meeting Place

Maid of Erin Monument, Market Square (in front of Courthouse),

Tour takes place from March 17th to Sept 30th,

Time: Friday's 7.30pm and Sunday's 10.00am

- Available by arrangement with groups at other times
- Language Tours for Groups available by arrangement

Tickets:

Adults €6.00, Seniors: €5.00, Under 14's: Free

Irish Guided Tours / Marsh Road, Bellurgan, Dundalk, Co. Louth

m: +353 87 204 9263 / t: +353 1 254 9804 / e: info@irishguidedtours.ie / www.irishguidedtours.ie